

SECOND WIND (CALVIN S. BENNETT & JOHNNY YOUNG)

I GET SO LONELY WHEN I THINK OF YOU

YOU MAKE ME SO DAMN LONELY, YOU GIVE THE DEVIL HIS DUE

SITTIN' IN THE ALLEY WAY AT THE END OF THIS LONESOME ROAD

WON'T YOU COME AND HANG WITH ME, I DON'T LIKE TO DRINK ALONE

MY HEART WILL BEAT FOR YOU ONLY, UNTIL THE LOVE COMES THROUGH

DON'T PRETEND THAT IT'S MAYBE, PLAYING YOUR PART LIKE YOU DO

FELL OUT OF THE HOTEL WINDOW, THEY SAID I WOULDN'T SURVIVE

WALKED AWAY, KICKED THE CAN DOWN THE STREET

I CAN'T HITCH A RIDE, THEY ALL PASSED ME BY

NOW I'M WAKIN' UP, FEEL THE EMPTY ROOMS WHEN I COME HOME

NOW I'VE SEEN THE SUNRISE, FEEL THE LOVELY HEAT IT WARMS MY BONES

SEEKING REVELATIONS, BURSTING THROUGH THE CLOUDS I SOAR ABOVE

FINDING INCANTATIONS, BREATHE MY SECOND WIND I'M FEELING STRONG

SO WHEN YOU'RE LOWDOWN AND DESPERATE, YOUR HEART STRINGS ARE BROKE

SENDING YOU THIS MESSAGE, I WANTED YOU TO KNOW

WHEN WE PASS IN THE STREET, JUST WALK ON BY

YOU PRETEND WE NEVER DID MEET, I'LL PRETEND NOT TO CRY
