

Stay Out Late (Bennett/Young)

You know it's easy to please you-deceive you

You're falling right now to my plan somehow

Your body's achin' you're burning down the sun

Got to get beside you-inside you somehow

I can't wait-I can't stay because I know you wanna stay out late

We're in deep-I can't sleep because I know you wanna get home late

We're living right now-the moment is all ours

I saw you last night-your face through the crowd

Your lips were pouting-I'm shouting-across the room

Your eyes betray you-they're playing our tune

Meet me by the river in the summertime

The beast is howling for his women and wine

My lips are guilty with your silky taste

Your body's gonna give me a sign
