

WALTZ TO THE WORLD (BENNETT/YOUNG)

You're clear sky-you're drowning

Your blue light-is midnight

We vanish-so rapid

Still moving-in shadow

Now-once in your life-you'll find this light

Now let it shine-waltz to the world

Don't waste your time-when all will be clear

The sky falls

We're searching -tomorrow

We're buried -in sorrow

The light burns-when I burn

In heaven-we've fallen

Now-once in your life-you'll find this light-now let it shine-waltz to the world

Don't waste your time when all will be clear-the sky falls and then

We go through our lives-most of the time-without any clue-of our lovers mind

Time passes by-with heartache and fear

The sky falls again

We're angels-eternal

Transcending-from your world
